PRINT & PLAY EDITION GUIDE

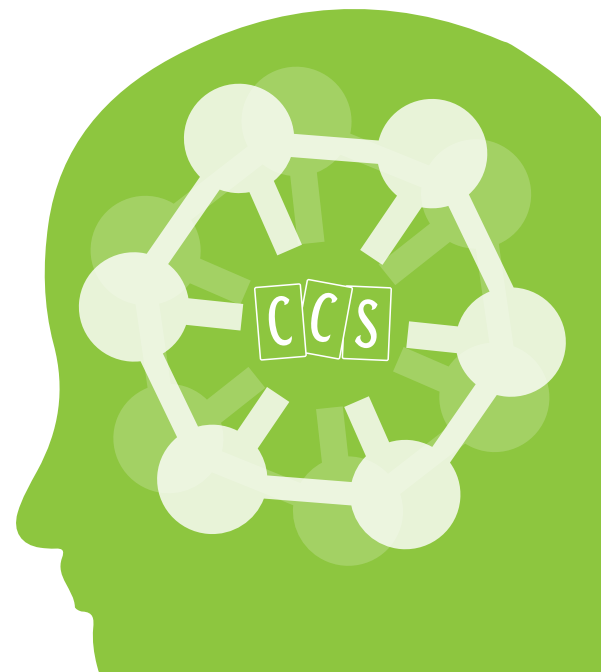

SHUFFLING through a pack of CCS Cards as you think about a given topic, activates your brain.

It stimulates all kinds of thoughts, memories, new ideas and emotions – even things that may not have come to you without the cards.

CCS Cards are special sets of image cards that include photos, illustrations and words that have been chosen for their capacity to trigger such responses in group facilitation, teamwork, coaching, relationships and self-discovery.

Uncover thoughts, feelings and fresh ideas

As you shuffle through a pack of CCS Cards, ask yourself an open topic or question that focuses on your lived experience and ideals about a subject or relationship.

Here's an example:

“Go through your pack to find 5 cards, that for you, describe the elements of your ideal team experience.”

Select cards that, for you, represent your thoughts and feelings about the topic.

Then talk about and write about why you chose what you chose.

Any card can mean anything to anyone

Whether using a real pack of cards or the virtual cards on this App, the same principles of use apply:

- Everyone has the same set of cards
- There are no set meanings for the cards
- Any card can mean anything to anyone at any time
- There are never any right or wrong responses.

Make up your own topics

By making up your own topics you can use your CCS Cards to help you and your colleagues explore and share all kinds of thoughts, goals, and ideas.

Good CCS Cards topics are:

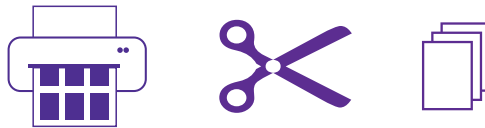

- ✓ clear and simple
- ✓ open-ended and with no right or wrong answers
- ✓ worded to reveal feelings, emotions, and experience.
